

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

VS.

CASE NO. 3:98CR092-001(CCC)

STACEY CARNEY

MOTION REQUESTING EARLY TERMINATION

TO THE HONORABLE CARMEN C. CEREZO
U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE
DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

COMES NOW, JEFFREY SEMIDEY-ACOSTA U.S. PROBATION OFFICER of this Court, presenting an official report on the conduct and attitude of releasee, Stacey Carney, who on December 8, 1998, was sentenced to sixty (60) months of imprisonment to be followed by a four (4) year supervised release term after he pleaded guilty of violating Title 21 U.S.C., §§ 846 & 841(a)(1)(d) & 2, 2114, 2117; 18:924(c)(1) & 2. As special conditions he was ordered to provide financial disclosure, and to pursue employment or to be engaged in vocational training. He was also ordered to make a special monetary assessment in the amount of $100.00. On July 24, 2002, the offender was released from custody to the District of Delaware.

On August 22, 2005, a letter was received from Graig H. Carpenter, Senior U.S. Probation Officer, District of Delaware informing that since his release from confinement Mr. Carney has fully complied with all of his supervised release conditions. His residence, employment, and family situation are stable. Reportedly, the offender's adjustment to supervision has been excellent and he is currently classified as a low risk offender. Mr. Carney has completed thirty-seven (37) months of the imposed supervised release term, which expires on July 23, 2006, and has complied with his conditions of supervision as mandated.

WHEREFORE, based on Mr. Carney's excellent adjustment to supervision and as he has already served two-thirds of his supervision term required by the Guide to Judiciary Policies and Procedures, it is respectfully requested that he be granted early termination as recommended by the U.S. Probation Officer of Delaware.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 6th day of September 2005.

Respectfully submitted,

s/Jeffrey Semidey
